The printout of the calls for the month of April, 1999 are in Ex. PW.66/D. He further proved that Mobile No. 9811068169 stood in the name of Alok Khanna and its printout is Ex. PW 66/C.

PW-32 , Ved Prakash Madan proved that Tel. No. 521491 was installed at PCO, Ambala and its printout is Ex. PW-32/B. PW-33, PV. Mathew has corroborated the version of PW -32 and has proved that the calls were made to USA. PW.-15, Sumitabh Bhatnagar stated that Tata Sierra No HR 26N4348 and Tata Sierra MP-04-2634 were allotted to Amardeep Singh Gill and Alok Khanna respectively. Similarly Mobile Nos. 981110237 and 9811068169 were also allotted to Amardeep Singh Gill and Alok Khanna respectively. Pw. -51, Sh. Rajiv Talwar has stated that Tel No. 660500 was installed in the office of Harvinder Chopra. PW.39, Mansvi Mittal STD/PCO Booth Inderlok-Mittal Communication Tel No. 5157498 is installed at this booth. Calls made remain in memory for a period of one month. Figure 00 is international access code and 171 is the code call to be made to USA 001 is also code call for America. Printout dated 04.05.1999 is

Ex.PW- 39 /1 and dated 05.05.1999 is Ex.PW-39/2 to 7, seizure Memo dated 27/05/1999 is Ex. 39/A where entries Ex. PW-39 /3-7 were made was present. The above phone call details show that the accused were in touch with each other which resulted in destruction of evidence and harboring. Thus the finding of the trial Court that in absence of what they stated to each other is of no help to the prosecution is an incorrect appreciation of evidence on record. A close association is a very important piece of evidence on the case of circumstantial evidence. The evidence of phone calls is a very relevant and admissible piece of evidence. (From: Calcutta)*

Dr. B.S. CHAUHAN AND

SWATANTER KUMAR, JJ.

Criminal appeal o. 1733 of 2008, D/-8-7-2010

Uday Chakraborty & Ors. V State of West Bengal.

Point of Law:- Criminal P.C. (2 of 1974), S. 161- Dowry death Recording statement of witness-Transfer of investigation to CID Investigating Officer who took over investigation can record fresh statement of witness-Plea that he ought to have relied on statement recorded by earlier investigating Officer- Not tenable.

Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the appellants, with some emphasis, contended that the Investigating Officer (PW-30). Who took over the investigation at the subsequent stage upon transfer of investigation to the CID, ought to have relied and referred only to the statements recorded under Section 161 of Cr. P.C. by the earlier Investigating Officer. In other words, he had no jurisdiction to record fresh statement of the witnesses. We do not find any force even in this argument. Firstly, for the reason that, it is settled principle of law that the statements under Section 161 of Cr.P.C. recorded during the investigation are not substantive piece of evidence but can be used primarily for a very limited purpose that is for confronting the witnesses. If some earlier statements were recorded under Section 161, Cr.P.C. then they must have be on the police file and would continue to be part of police file. However, if they have been filed on judicial record they would always be available to the accused and as such no prejudice is caused to anyone. Secondly, when the case was transferred to CID for investigation, it obviously means that in the normal course the authorities were not satisfied with the conduct of the investigation by PW-31 and considered it appropriate to transfer the investigation to a specialized branch i.e. CID. Once, the direction was given to PW-30 to conduct the investigation afresh and in accordance with law, we see no error of jurisdiction or otherwise committed by PW-30 in examining the witnesses afresh and filing the charge sheet under Section `173 of Cr.P.C. stating that the appellants and other accused had committed the offence and were liable to face under sections 304-B and 498-A IPC.
